

Interregional Dialogue meeting

The role of South-South-North interregional higher education cooperation in development

SPOTLIGHT ON AFRICA, LATIN AMERICA AND CARIBBEAN AND EUROPE

(Preliminary Agenda)

(The event will have simultaneous Catalan, Spanish, English, French and Portuguese interpretation)

 Venue: Palau Reial de Pedralbes

WEDNESDAY 23RD NOVEMBER 9:30 AM - 5PM

This meeting is hosted and promoted by OBREAL Global, the Government of the Generalitat de Catalunya and the Argentinian Ministry of Education, acting also as the pro-tempore Presidency of CELAC (Comunidad de Estados Latinoamericanos y Caribeños). The event will bring together both representatives of governments and of regional and continental integration and cooperation institutions, and representatives of national, regional and continental HE associations and organisations to discuss:

- a) The concrete ways in which universities, the HE sector and governments are contributing to the local and regional development agenda, notably along several thematic axes: Open Science, Employment, Inclusion and Lifelong learning, Climate change and Sustainable Development
- b) Current examples of South-South-North Africa – Latin America – Europe collaboration to this effect and the perspectives for and importance of expanding this type of multi-regional collaboration

The event will be open to DHG members as an official pre-event of the annual DHG Forum.
